MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1767.

MADRID, May 12.

ON the 3d of this Month a great Concourse of People assembled in the great Square of this City, with what Design is not yet known; but on the Approach of some Detachments of Troops, they dispersed. The Council of Castile has promised a Reward of 100 Pistoles, for discovering the Movers and Promoters of this tumultuous Assembly, and a Pardon to the Promulgater, even in case he himself was concerned in the Affair.

Civita-Vecchia, May 15. It was believed that the Count Vindaschi, who is arrived here with a Detachment of Soldiers, had Orders to conduct the Spanish Jesuits into the Ecclesiastical State; but on the Arrival of Fourteen Vessels, having on board 572 of those Fathers, under Escort of Three Men of War, none of them, except the Sick, were permitted to disembark. The Rest are still uncertain of their Lot.

Leghorn, May 26. They write from Rogliano, in the Island of Corsica, that 91 of the Prisoners that were taken in the Island of Capraia, are arrived there. Those among them who are Genoese, or of other Nations, are treated according to the Rules of War in all Civilised Countries; but those who prove to be Corsicans, are sent to Prison, and treated as Rebels and Traitors to their Country.

Mittau, May 16. The Duke and the Nobility acceded Yesterday to the Confederacy formed by the Dissidents of Lithuania. In the Act of Accession, it is declared in express Terms, that this Step shall not alter in any respect the Relation or Connection in which the Duchies of Courland and Semegalia stand, with regard to the Republic of Poland, nor the Rights of the Roman Catholic Religion; that the Marshal of the Confederation shall not exercise any Jurisdiction over these Two Duchies; that he shall not impose any Contribution on them; and lastly, that this Accession shall not be alledged in Example, when hereafter other Confederations may be in Agitation.

Thorn, May 22. The 18th of this Month a large Detachment of Russian Troops, which are in this Town and its Environs, began to march, under the Conduct of Major General Count d'Apraxin, to take up their Quarters in some Places of Great-Poland.

Florence, May 23. By the last Letters from Rome, it seems as if the Pope had altered his Resolution with regard to the Admission of the Jesuits into his State.

Parma, May 23. The Infant, affected by the Ravages made in Tuscany and in the Bolonois, by the Diseases occasioned by Scarcity, hath sent some Officers of the Militia, with an Order to go throughout his Dominions, and provide Grain for those Communities which may be in Want of it, and to administer to the Poor the Succours which they may have occasion for.

Turin, May 27. An Edict of the King is published, dated the 18th Inst. whereby his Majesty forbids the amassing of Grain, and the exporting it to foreign Countries; and orders every Person to make, yearly, an exact Declaration of the Quantity he shall have reaped.

Florence, May 30. The First and Second Convoy of Jesuits from Spain having been refused to land at Civita Vecchia, they sailed from thence towards Corsica, where the Republic of Genoa had consented that a certain Number of them should be distributed in the Places that are garrisoned by the French Troops: But, by the last Letters received here from Genoa, we hear, that M. de Marbeuf, the Commander in Chief of those Troops in that Island, had declared, that he could not permit the Jesuits to land there; and that the Republic had likewise made the same Declaration in regard to their landing in any Part of that State on the Continent; and that Notice thereof had been dispatched by a Vessel, to meet those Convoys at Sea.

Hague, June 5. M. de Larrey, Privy Counsellor and Secretary to the Prince of Orange, sets out for Berlin To-Morrow, in order to settle every Thing relative to the Marriage of his Serene Highness with the Princess Wilhelmina, Sister to the Prince Royal of Prussia.

Warsaw, June 5. We learn that an extraordinary Diet for the Determination of the Affair of the Dissidents, will be opened on the Fifth of October next.

LONDON, May 30.

It is said the Earl of Chatham will be created a Knight of the Garter the first Vacancy.

June 4. The Court of St. James's this Day, on Account of its being the Anniversary of his Majesty's Birth-Day, was extremely numerous and brilliant; when many of the Nobility, of both Sexes, particularly several Ladies of the highest Rank, appeared in the Manufactures of this Kingdom.

Private Letters from Petersburg mention, that an Edict of the Empress was preparing, and would soon be published, forbidding the Jesuits to settle in any Part of the Russian Territories.

June 6. Yesterday the Duke of Grafton and Ancaster, the Earls Talbot and Shelburne, and the Right Hon. Henry Seymour Conway, gave grand Entertainments at their respective Houses, to the Nobility, &c. in Honour of his Majesty's Birth-Day.

Last Night their Excellencies the French and Spanish Ambassadors illuminated the Fronts of their respective Houses in a most elegant Manner.

The Mansion House was also illuminated on the same Occasion.

Two Companies of the Royal Train of Artillery are ordered to embark for New-York, to relieve those who have been there for some Years.

Orders are sent to Woolwich for a considerable Quantity of Ordinance Stores to be got in readiness to be shipt for Halifax and Quebec.

Letters from the North of Ireland inform, that great Swarms of Dutch and French Fishermen were arrived on that Coast.

This Morning the Britannia and Pitt Transports fell down the River to Woolwich, to embark a Quantity of Ordinance Stores for North-America.

His Polish Majesty, and the Republic, having insisted upon the Recal of the Russian Troops from Poland, the Empress has given for Ans. &c. That she will consent to that Demand, as soon as the Dissidents receive the Satisfaction due to them in respect to their Rights and Privileges.

Extract of a Letter from Berlin, dated May 30.

"The 25th instant we received the melancholy News, that Prince Frederick-Henry-Charles, Brother of the Prince of Prussia, died the Day before at Pretzen, where, being on his March with his Regiment, he was seized with the Small-Pox, and the Purples. This Prince, who cannot be sufficiently regretted, was 29 Years of Age, and about Five Months."

A Letter from Rome, dated the 16th ult. says, "Cardinal York has presented Prince Edward, his Brother, to the Pope, who admitted him as a Stranger, keeping himself incognito, and gave him a tender and distinguished Reception."

They write from Lisbon, that Mr. Hay, the British Envoy, was shortly to embark on board an English Man of War in the Tagus, on his Return home.

Last Saturday died at Portsmouth, in his 28th Year, after a tedious Illness, Lord Hope, eldest Son of the Earl of Hopeton. He had arrived but a few Days before from America, whence he had gone by the Advice of his Physicians, in Hopes that a long Sea Voyage might contribute to his Recovery.

June 11. In a Letter from Lord Clive, received by the Grenville East-Indiaman, in the following Passage: "The general Tenor in which I have mentioned the Depravity of the Gentlemen, obliges me to point out to your Attention the Instances, the very few Instances of distinguished Merit among the Servants. To Sabat Ally, who, in the midst of Luxury and Licentiousness, had retained the true Idea of commercial Oeconomy, who, inferior in Fortune to most of your civil Servants, in the Rank of Counsellor, was yet superior to all in Moderation and Integrity, whose Regard for the Welfare of the Public, and for the Reputation of Individuals, had made him warn others from falling into the Temptations of Corruption, which he saw were approaching, and who could actually resist these Temptations himself, when a Share was allotted him of Money he thought unwarrantably obtained. To find such a Man in such a Settlement, would appear incredible to those who are unacquainted with Mr. Verelst. I have represented this Gentleman to you, as I would every one, in his real Character, and shall only add, that if you wish to see the Measures we are now pursuing, supported with Integrity, Abilities, and Resolution, you will endeavour to prevail upon him to continue in your Service, by appointing him to succeed Mr. Sumner in the Government."

Yesterday Sir James Grey, appointed Ambassador to the Court of Spain, took Leave of his Majesty at St. James's; and on Tuesday next he will set out on his Embassy to that Court.

William Henry Lyttleton, Esq; appointed Ambassador to the Court of Lisbon, also took Leave Yesterday of his Majesty, and will set out on his Embassy to the said Court in a few Days.

Extract of a Letter from an English Traveller, dated Rome, May 22, 1767.

"Since my last arrived at Civita Vecchia about 900 Spanish Jesuits. They were forbidden to land there. The Night of the 19th, they quitted that Port, and sailed for Corsica. Part of them are to disembark there, at Bastia, and the remainder in the Harbour of Genoa.

"It seems the King of Spain on receiving a Letter from the Pope, in which he refused, and shewed the Impossibility of his admitting the Jesuits into his State, requested the Genoese to find a Place for them. The Genoese, who have almost left Corsica, and were Friends, immediately consented, hoping, by this Measure, to engage the King in their Favour, or, at least, to prevent his becoming downright their Enemy.

June 13. An Express is arrived, with an Account of the Death of the Empress of Germany, of the Small-Pox, in the 49th Year of her Age. She was Sister to the present Elector of Bavaria, and was married to the present Emperor the 13th of January 1765. This is the Second Consort his Imperial Majesty has lost by that fatal Distemper.

Some Letters from Vienna say, that the Empress Queen being on a Visit, the 23d Ult. to the Empress Josepha, who was then ill of the Small-Pox, her Majesty was also seized the next Day with a Fever, which terminated in the same Distemper.

A Camp is to be formed at Compeigne, by the 22d of July, of 17,000 Men, composed of the Flower of the French Army.

The King of Prussia has now an Army of 60,000 Men, of his veteran Regiments, in the Dutchy of Cleves, which adjoins to Holland.

They write from Gibraltar, that the Venetian Consul had concluded a fresh Treaty of Peace with the Dey and Regency of Algiers.

They write from Guernsey, that a large Dutch Transport, with Naval Stores for Brest, has been drove on Shore in a hard Gale of Wind, between Cape La Hogue and the Caskets; the Crew were saved, but the Ship and Cargo lost.

June 16. A Letter from Paris, dated June 8, says, "We have here an Account that the English Government are about to make an entire Prohibition of Blond Lace, of the Manufactory of this Kingdom. The Merchants and Dealers in that Article are likewise going to lay the same before the King's Council here, in order to have a Stop put to all Kinds of Hardware and Worsted Goods coming into France, of the Manufactory of England."

Private Letters from Rome assure, that the late Interview granted by the Pope to the pretended Prince Edward, was in Resentment for certain vigorous Measures taken here, for checking the Growth of Popery.

Other Advices insinuate, that an open Rupture is not far off, and that the Friends of the young Chevalier are in high Spirits, as expecting he will soon be acknowledged by his Holiness in Form.

There are Letters in Town advising, that the Crew of the Falmouth Indiaman, lately cast away, were reduced to such Distress, as to cast Lots for their Lives, and that Two had actually been killed and eaten by the Survivors.

June 18. The Parliament, it is said, will break up on Thursday, the 25th Instant.

In a Letter addressed to a Minister, on the Subject of the East-India Dividend, a certain great Man, who has been charged with being the Author of a Measure disagreable to some of the Members of an opulent commercial Company, is exculpated of the Charge, as follows: "Your G——e has an Example before your Eyes; in him, who in our Days has run the noblest Career of honest Ambition; ever grand in the Formation of his Projects, as well as bold in the Execution; he scorns to employ public Measures as the Means of privy Gratification; and I will venture to say, that in all his Views even the most unexceptionable, he never proceeded upon Considerations so trifling and selfish. They were ignorant, indeed, of his Character, who at first ascribed the present Measure to him. The Public are in general now satisfied of the Part he took in it. Your G——e, at this Time, alone enjoys the ——— of st——an Act."

In the above mentioned Letter it is positively asserted, that "the Dutch have actually sold out immense Sums, not chusing to continue in our Funds at a low Interest, when their Confidence in the faithful and exact Payment is lost. They prefer lodging their Money at a higher Rate with the French, since if they are to be left at the Discretion of the Borrower, an absolute French Monarch, or an absolute English Minister, is Matter of little Choice."

It is reported that the Hon. Hans Stanley, Esq; is shortly to succeed Sir Joseph Yorke, as his Majesty's Ambassador to the States General.

June 20. We are informed, that his Majesty will go to the House of Peers on Thursday next, and, after signing such Bills as are ready, will prorogue the Parliament.

The following, among other Bills, lie ready for the Royal Assent; viz.

The Bill to continue several Laws relating to the running of uncustomed Goods; to prevent the running of Goods, and the Danger of Infection thereby; to the granting Liberty to carry Rice from Carolina and Georgia, in America, directly to any Part of Europe, Southward of Cape Finisterre; and to the prohibiting the Exportation of Books reprinted abroad, and first written and printed in Great-Britain.

The Bill for the free Importation of Cochineal and Indigo, and for allowing the Bounties upon the Exportation of Corn and Malt, declared or made for Exportation, and Barley steeped, and entered to be made into Malt for Exportation, before a limited Time.

We hear that the Insinuation which was lately propagated, that the Right Hon. Mr. Conway was to resign as Secretary of State, and get the first vacant Regiment, is entirely without Foundation, that Right Hon. Gentleman's Conduct, since his coming into the Administration, having given such universal Satisfaction, that it is the Opinion of the most sensible Politicians, that he will be continued, till he himself chuses to deprive the Public of a Minister, whose Patriotism and Steadiness had been equalled by few, and surpassed by none.

A Letter from Leghorn, dated May 23, says, "Notwithstanding the Advantage obtained by the Corsican Rebels in the Isle of Capraia, the Fortress has not yet surrendered; and when the Commissary Otto, and Masconi, the Commander, went to it, thinking it would capitulate, the Garrison answered them firmly, they were not to flatter themselves that they should be Masters of it for a long Time, inasmuch as it was well provided with Provisions and Military Stores."

On Thursday a Letter was received here from Lord Clive at Bengal, dated the 3d of February last, which mentions his perfect Recovery from his late dangerous Indisposition, and that he was then about to embark for England; so that his Lordship's Arrival is hourly expected. We hear, that his Lordship hath not only received the large Debt due from Sourah Doula, but Two Millions in Specie besides, on the Company's Account.

They advise from Hamburgh, that a great Number of Saltzburghers were preparing to embark on board an English Ship in the Elbe, for the new British Settlements in America.

They write from Senegal, that a Crew of Pirates, in an armed Schooner, who had committed divers Robberies on the Coast, finding themselves pursued by an English Man of War, and that it was impossible to escape her, blew themselves up, by setting Fire to the Powder Room, and every one on board perished.

They write from Amsterdam, that an Embargo was hourly expected to be laid on all outward bound Vessels laden with Corn; on which Account, several Vessels were preparing to sail with half their Cargoes.

They write from Edinburgh, that such great Additions and Improvements are about to be made to that City, as will render it almost equal to any Metropolis in Europe for Extent and Elegance; some new and spacious Streets are to be built on a fine healthy Piece of Ground, commanding a Prospect of the Sea; and a Bridge is to be constructed over a deep Glen, to connect them to the rest of the City.

Newcastle, May 23. Last Week Two Couple from the South were married at Gretna Green. One of the Ladies was only Fifteen, and said to be a Nobleman's Daughter, stolen from a Boarding School, and will have a Fortune of 3,000 l. a Year. She objected to be married in a Private House, and was with much ado prevailed on to comply at the Time; crying out, "Oh, must I be married in such a shabby Place as this!" The Parson however from this Demur, took the Hint to raise the Price, and would not marry them under Ten Guineas. The Gentleman comes from the Neighbourhood of Haltwhistle.

The late English Papers mention the following Persons, remarkable for their great Age, &c. viz.

by Henry Perry, Esq; A. similar Case was [illegible] us in Writing from Hackinsack, in New-York, about Two or Three Years ago, of a Woman of 70, who had always borne a good Character, and who applied to a Magistrate and desired to make Oath that she was then with Child by a Man in the Neighbourhood, near as old as herself. The Justice asked her, how it happened that she, who even in Youth had always maintained a good Character, came to be so imprudent to forfeit it in her old Age, when she must naturally have less Temptation? She answered, that she thought her Age would have secured her from any such Consequence, and therefore had ventured to indulge her Inclination, thinking it would remain a Secret, and neither injure her own Character, nor give a bad Example to others.—The Justice then sent for the Man, who upon being informed of the Effect of his Amour, agreed to make Matters easy, by marrying the Woman, which was done accordingly, to their mutual Satisfaction.

NEW-YORK, August 24.

The English Papers brought by Captain Jefferies contain nothing new or interesting, relative to America, and all we can collect from Private Letters is, That the Bill for stopping the legislative Authority in this Province, until we comply with the Billeting-Act, had passed the House of Commons; that the Americans were permitted to import the Produce of the Streights without calling at England to enter; that their was no Probability of obtaining a Paper-Currency this Session; that a Board of Customs was settled for America; and that 'twas supposed the Parliament would break up about the First of July.

Wednesday last Captain George Tucker arrived here from Turks-Island, in 17 Days: He says that many Settlers have lately arrived there from Bermuda, and that the Place bids fair for being, in a short Time, very considerable on Account of Trade; that Governor Seymour has appointed a Council, and the Inhabitants have chose an Assembly, by Virtue of an Order from England; and that several French Sloops have lately been there, but could not dispose of their Cargoes, there being but very few Purchasers. Salt very scarce.

PHILADELPHIA, August 27.

From Bucks County we learn, that one Robert Stewart, having employed a Man to deepen his Well, who, after working some Days, refused to go down again; that on Monday last said Stewart sent one of his Sons down to make a Fire, in order to dry it, who, as soon as he got to the Bottom, fell down speechless; another Son went down to his Assistance, and was taken in the same Manner; then a Third Son went down, who also was taken ill in like Manner; at last the Father went down, and likewise shared the same Fate. Their Bodies were afterwards taken out, and all buried in one Grave the next Day, at Neshaminey Meeting.

ANNAPOLIS, SEPTEMBER 3.

There is on said Land, a large New Brick Dwelling-House, Passage, Kitchen, Quarter, Milk-House, Corn-Houses, Stables, Barns, and all other Out-Houses suitable thereto. A large Orchard of very fine Fruit. The Land is rich, level, full of Timber, well watered in all Parts, and will agree with any Sort of Produce, and will be sold all together, or in separate Lots, as the Purchasers may chuse.
A Tract or Parcel of LAND, adjoining the above Tract, containing about One Hundred and odd Acres, whereon may be made a Piece of choice Meadow, at a small Expence. Any Person inclinable to purchase, may see the Land on applying to Samuel Worthington, who lives adjoining.
A Tract or Parcel of LAND, containing 400 and odd Acres, situated on Gun-Powder River, in a Place called Middle-River Neck, about 16 Miles from Baltimore-Town, and in Sight of Joppa. The Land is entirely level, vastly rich, and full of various Sorts of Timber, fitting for any kind of Business. Fish, and Water-Fowl, in as great Plenty, in their Seasons, as in any Part of the Country. There is about 120 Acres cleared, on which is a good Framed Dwelling-House, Passage and Kitchen, Quarter for Servants, Corn-House, Stables, good Barn, large Yard and Garden, a good Pump-Well, and very fine Water. All the said Improvements are quite new, except the Barn.——Any Person inclinable to purchase, may apply to Mr. Nathan Nicholson, who lives within a Mile of said Plantation, who will shew the Land; and apply for Terms to
(6t) VACHEL WORTHINGTON.
N. B. As the above Lands are sold for the Payment of my Creditors, I take this publick Method of requesting their Indulgence for Payment of the Money due them, 'til the Sale thereof, when they may depend on being paid, which I hope will be in my Power in Five or Six Months at farthest. And, as troubling me for the said Money, will only add Costs to the Debts, I hope this Request will be granted to,
Gentlemen,
2 Your humble Servant,
V. WORTHINGTON.

May 3, 1767.
RAN away from Bush-River Furnace, a Convict Servant Man, named PATRICK HIRLEY, born in Ireland, is a little pitted with the Small Pox, thin visaged, very narrow a-cross his Eyes; his right Thigh has been broke, and causes him to walk very lame; his right Foot stands out by the said Hurt, and has short light-brown Hair: Had on when he went away, a Cotton Jacket; Petticoat Trowsers; Felt Hat; and old Shoes and Stockings.
Whoever takes up said Servant, and secures him in any Jail, shall have TEN POUNDS Reward, besides what the Law allows, and reasonable Charges if brought home, paid by his Master living at the Head of South-River.

THE Subscriber takes this Method to inform the Public, That he carries on the SHOE-MAKING BUSINESS as usual, at his Shop, near Mr. ROBERT COUDEN's Store, in Church-Street, ANNAPOLIS; where he has supplied himself with an extraordinary good Hand from LONDON, in Womens Silk, Stuff, or Leather Shoes or Pumps. Those Ladies, and others, who shall favour him with their Employ, may depend on having their Work done in the best Manner, with the utmost Dispatch, and at the most reasonable Rates, by 6 JOSHUA HOSIER.

The following, among other Bills, lie ready for the Royal Aſſent; viz.

The Bill to continue ſeveral Laws relating to the running of uncuſtomed Goods; to prevent the running of Goods, and the Danger of Infection thereby; to the granting Liberty to carry Rice from Carolina and Georgia, in America, directly to any Part of Europe, Southward of Cape Finiſterre; and to the prohibiting the Exportation of Books reprinted abroad, and firſt written and printed in Great-Britain.

The Bill for the free Importation of Cochineal and Indigo, and for allowing the Bounties upon the Exportation of Corn and Malt, declared or made for Exportation, and Barley ſteeped, and entered to be made into Malt for Exportation, before a limited Time.

We hear that the Inſinuation which was lately propagated, that the Right Hon. Mr. Conway was to reſign as Secretary of State, and get the firſt vacant Regiment, is entirely without Foundation, that Right Hon. Gentleman's Conduct, ſince his coming into the Adminiſtration, having given ſuch univerſal Satisfaction, that it is the Opinion of the moſt ſenſible Politicians, that he will be continued, till he himſelf chuſes to deprive the Public of a Miniſter, whoſe Patriotiſm and Steadineſs had been equalled by few, and ſurpaſſed by none.

A Letter from Leghorn, dated May 23, ſays, "Notwithſtanding the Advantage obtained by the Corſican Rebels in the Iſle of Capraia, the Fortreſs has not yet ſurrendered; and when the Commiſſary Otto, and Maſconi, the Commander, went to it, thinking it would capitulate, the Garriſon anſwered them firmly, they were not to flatter themſelves that they ſhould be Maſters of it for a long Time, inaſmuch as it was well provided with Proviſions and Military Stores."

On Thurſday a Letter was received here from Lord Clive at Bengal, dated the 3d of February laſt, which mentions his perfect Recovery from his late dangerous Indiſpoſition, and that he was then about to embark for England; ſo that his Lordſhip's Arrival is hourly expected. We hear, that his Lordſhip hath not only received the large Debt due from Sourah Doula, but Two Millions in Specie beſides, on the Company's Account.

They adviſe from Hamburgh, that a great Number of Saltzburghers were preparing to embark on board an Engliſh Ship in the Elbe, for the new Britiſh Settlements in America.

They write from Senegal, that a Crew of Pirates, in an armed Schooner, who had committed divers Robberies on the Coaſt, finding themſelves purſued by an Engliſh Man of War, and that it was impoſſible to eſcape her, blew themſelves up, by ſetting Fire to the Powder Room, and every one on board periſhed.

They write from Amſterdam, that an Embargo was hourly expected to be laid on all outward bound Veſſels laden with Corn; on which Account, ſeveral Veſſels were preparing to ſail with half their Cargoes.

They write from Edinburgh, that ſuch great Additions and Improvements are about to be made to that City, as will render it almoſt equal to any Metropolis in Europe for Extent and Elegance; ſome new and ſpacious Streets are to be built on a fine healthy Piece of Ground, commanding a Proſpect of the Sea; and a Bridge is to be conſtructed over a deep Glen, to connect them to the reſt of the City.

Newcaſtle, May 23. Laſt Week Two Couple from the South were married at Gratna Green. One of the Ladies was only Fifteen, and ſaid to be a Nobleman's Daughter, ſtolen from a Boarding School, and will have a Fortune of 5,000 l. a Year. She objected to be married in a Private Houſe, and was with much ado prevailed on to comply at the Time; crying out, "Oh, muſt I be married in ſuch a ſhabby Place as this!" The Parſon however from this Demur, took the Hint to raiſe the Price, and would not marry them under Ten Guineas. The Gentleman comes from the Neighbourhood of Haltwhiſtle.

The Juſtice aſked her, how it happened that ſhe, who even in Youth had always maintained a good Character, came to be ſo imprudent to forfeit it in her old Age, when ſhe muſt naturally have leſs Temptation? She anſwered, that ſhe thought her Age would have ſecured her from any ſuch Conſequence, and therefore had ventured to indulge her Inclination, thinking it would remain a Secret, and neither injure her own Character, nor give a bad Example to others.—The Juſtice then ſent for the Man, who upon being ſatisfied of the Effect of his Amour, agreed to make Matters eaſy, by marrying the Woman, which was done accordingly, to their mutual Satisfaction.]

NEW-YORK, Auguſt 24.

The Engliſh Papers brought by Captain Jefferies contain nothing new or intereſting, relative to America, and all we can collect from Private Letters, is, That the Bill for ſtopping the legiſlative Authority in this Province, until we comply with the Billeting-Act, had paſſed the Houſe of Commons; that the Americans were permitted to import the Produce of the Streights without calling at England to enter; that their was no Probability of obtaining a Paper-Curency this Seſſion; that a Board of Cuſtoms was ſettled for America; and that 'twas ſuppoſed the Parliament would break up about the Firſt of July.

Wedneſday laſt Captain George Tucker arrived here from Turks-Iſland, in 17 Days: He ſays that many Settlers have lately arrived there from Bermuda, and that the Place bids fair for being, in a ſhort Time, very conſiderable on Account of Trade; that Governor Seymour has appointed a Council, and the Inhabitants have choſe an Aſſembly, by Virtue of an Order from England; and that ſeveral French Sloops have lately been there, but could not diſpoſe of their Cargoes, there being but very few Purchaſers. Salt very ſcarce.

PHILADELPHIA, Auguſt 27.

From Bucks County we learn, that one Robert Stewart, having employed a Man to deepen his Well, who, after working ſome Days, refuſed to go down again; that on Monday laſt ſaid Stewart ſent one of his Sons down to make a Fire, in order to dry it, who, as ſoon as he got to the Bottom, fell down ſpeechleſs; another Son went down to his Aſſiſtance, and was taken in the ſame Manner; then a Third Son went down, who alſo was taken ill in like Manner; at laſt the Father went down, and likewiſe ſhared the ſame Fate. Their Bodies were afterwards taken out, and all buried in one Grave the next Day, at Neſhaminey Meeting.
